

Welcome to the Classic Science eLab!

A 6-Week Answer to Life, the Universe and Everything

ALL HAIL THE GREAT PUMPKIN!

A one-page SURVIVAL GUIDE

Somewhere on your computer, you should already have one of the following two icons. You will use these to access the internet. If you do not have either of them, click on one (You only need one of them) and download it.

Firefox: <http://www.mozilla.com/en-US/firefox/ie.html>

Internet Explorer: <http://www.microsoft.com/windows/Internet-explorer/default.aspx>

The camera you received is a Logitech QuickCam 3000. Most computers will install all of the programs you need by simply plugging this device in! If not, you can find all the info you need at the following URL:

http://www.logitech.com/index.cfm/for_business/products/webcams_headsets/devices/4783&cl=us,en

The Adobe Reader will be needed to open all of your weekly readings. You probably already have this program installed; however, the following link can be used to download the latest version if you need: <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>

The VLC Media Player is amazing! It opens nearly every kind of movie, DVD, CD, animation, etc. Any of the movies you may want to look at throughout this course can be easily opened using this program. Download it for free at: <http://www.videolan.org/vlc/>

The Classic Science Labs is the homepage for this course. Access this website and choose the following class: "Classic Science eLab: A six-week answer to life, the universe, and everything"

<http://eequalsmcq.com/moodle/>

Throughout the course, we will be having online help sessions with the use of dimdim.com. Here you will have the opportunity to work together, ask questions, and get some support. Besides... you need to use that shiny new toy you just received, right?!?! No need for any downloads. It's all taken care of for you!

Still need to find me? No problem! You can always email me at moodle@eequalsmcq.com or feel free to Skype me at "smcquery"

Don't know how to Skype? Well it is sooo cool! And you get to try out that new webcam as well! Download the free version of Skype at: <http://www.skype.com/download/skype/windows/?c=101>
